

HOOK-WORM.

No wonder he could never catch
A fish within the deep;
For when he tossed his line far out,
He promptly fell asleep.

POWER.

The booze hound had a rifle that
He really thought was slick;
And when friends asked him why,
He said:
"At least it's got a kick."

GEORGES SPRINGS SURPRISE BY USE OF CLEAR ENGLISH

Newspapermen Start Interview With Interpreter
But Unnecessary.

By HENRY L. FARRELL,
United Press Staff Correspondent.

NEW YORK, May 26.—If you want to learn the best way to raise a baby girl, if you would like to take some lessons in teaching a dog tricks, if you want to take a good beating at any kind of a card game but poker, put Georges Carpenter on your list.

If you have a desire to talk boxing or get some inside first hand information on who'll win the Dempsey-Carpenter fight, consult anybody but Carpenter.

The trim, facelious young Frenchman who journeyed over here to meet Jack Dempsey for the world's championship will talk fluently about everything but his business.

Carpenter can speak fluently, too. He picked up a lot of English from the Tomies and Doughboys during the war but he was a little bit backward last year about using it. The newspapermen who went down the bay to meet him on his recent arrival learned with some surprise that the European heavy-weight champion can shake a wicked tongue on English.

Battis Into Talk.
Before boarding the liner, the scribes made the pleasant discovery that one of their number could speak French. After making a perilous ascent over the side of a rope ladder, the reporters swept Carpenter and his manager, Deschamps, into the main saloon where all gathered around a big table and proceeded to cross examine Deschamps through the interpreter.

Carpenter found the interview such a slow process that he butted in and answered all the questions in perfect English.

"When did you pick the language, George?" one of the surprised scribes asked.

"I had it last year," he answered, "but I didn't have the nerve to use it."

The Frenchman didn't bring along the trunk full of fancy clothes that he had with him the last time.

"I came over to run over the roads and work on a farm, not to walk on your Fifth avenue. Perhaps after July 2nd I will put on what you call the glad rags," he said.

Fond of His Dog.
The police dog, "Flip," a big strong fellow who runs like a wolf, is Carpenter's best pal. Around the training quarters at Manhasset, "Flip" was the Frenchman's mascot during the war and saw a lot of action around Verdun.

"Flip" is very particular about the way his young master is treated. A strange hand laid even so lightly on Carpenter's shoulder brings a threatening growl from the animal, he bares a mouthful of long teeth and the hair comes up on his back.

"He'd be a good assistant at the ring side," one of the reporters remarked to Carpenter.

"Yes, he would—if I needed him," the Frenchman came back with one of his smiles.

PURDUE SPEEDSTER

Furnas of Purdue will lead the squadron of distance runners who hope to return the Bottlemakers a win in the Indiana State meet which will be held at Carlier Field Saturday afternoon.

The doughy distance star was the fourth member of the Indiana representatives in the United States Olympic team last year.

Fully 14 years, Gus Desch and Johnny Murphy were the other three Hoosiers on the team and all will compete in the State meet on Saturday.

Furnas does the mile in 4:25 and turned in a two-mile at the Penn Relays in 9:20. He has been running the 800 in dual meets this season but will not be entered in that event on Saturday as the principal reason for his half-miling was to speed him up for the long-distance events in the Indiana State, Conference and National Intercollegiate meets.

Furnas is Conference champion in two and five-mile runs.

MAYOR CARSON PICKS
JACK TO WIN BY K. O.

Mayor Carson looped a few minutes from the city's time on Thursday to announce that Dempsey was going to knock George Carpenter through the ropes at Jersey City on July 2.

The mayor, who is one of the keen sportsmen in the city, said that he recently had a talk with Billy Papke, the Kewanna fighter, who once scored a knockout on the French challenger, and Papke gave him to understand that the fight would be one-two-three for Dempsey.

"Dempsey is the hardest hitter that ever crawled through the ropes," I saw him hit Billy Miske at Benton Harbor and he had to bend his wrist to take his hand out of Miske's face.

Michigan Not to Protest
Illini Star's Eligibility

By Associated Press:
ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 26.—University of Michigan athletic authorities will not make a formal protest against Julie Mee, star shortstop of the Illinois baseball club, Phil Bartelme, athletic director, announced Thursday night.

Bartelme said he had so advised Carl Lundgren, the Illinois baseball coach. The athletic director added that Michigan had not questioned Mee's eligibility, although it had been understood that the shortstop spent some time with the Detroit Tigers last fall and had since agreed to join the American league team at the close of the present school year.

Fitzsimmons Says Georges Won't Last More Than Four

By United Press:
CHICAGO, May 26.—Floyd Fitzsimmons, Benton Harbor, Mich., promoter, who staged the Dempsey-Miske fight, says this of the big scrap:

"Dempsey will win the first time Carpenter misses him. It may possibly go four rounds but I cannot see how the Frenchman can stay that long with Jack."

It's the pinch of stuff, not snuff, that counts with a pitcher.
A hurler's wing furnishes the windup of a ball game.

Star Hoosier Mitt Performer

CHUCK WIGGINS

If Chuck Wiggins, Indianapolis batter, is as good as his word, Harry Greb is due to feel many gloves Saturday afternoon when he meets the Hoosier in a 10-round scrap to decide the light heavyweight championship of the United States.

Wiggins landed in South Bend Thursday afternoon and was very confident of his ability to hand the Pittsburgher a stiff lacing in the coming scrap. Chuck advised that he would not be unwise to place a few dollars on him to get the win. He also stated that about 200 of his admirers from the capital city would arrive here today and would wager their money on him.

The fact that Wiggins has been going along at a great pace for the past year and his present perfect condition appears to be on the surface enough assurance for his confident attitude when one remembers that he has fought Greb three times, each fight ending in a draw.

Greb and Wiggins are regarded throughout the country as the fastest men above the middleweight division. The only man in their weight who compares to them in speed and ability is Georges Carpenter, the French challenger, who will meet Jack Dempsey for the world's heavyweight crown July 2 at Jersey City.

A great deal of interest is being attracted by the preliminary bouts to the headlines. Cities in southern Michigan are greatly interested in the outcome of the Kid Fay-Fred Hoffman six-round set. Both lads hail from the Wolverine state.

Fay being well known here since he has fought on several cards in this city, and each has a good following who will be in the arena to cheer their favorites on to victory. This will be the semi-windup.

The Jack Kennedy-Kid Buck fight is also coming in for considerable comment. Kennedy and Buck are both well thought of in leading bantamweight circles. Kennedy hails from Gary and Buck comes from Battle Creek. The curtain-raiser will be a four-round go between Jimmy Balog and Young Michael, two local feathers.

Judging from the way tickets are going for the scrap, a crowd of 4,000 at least will be on hand when the first bout gets started at 4:30 o'clock. Tickets are still on sale to fans in all downtown cigar stores.

Giants Forced to Divide Double Header by Braves

By Associated Press:
BOSTON, May 26.—New York won the first game 5 to 3 and Boston took the second 4 to 2 in Thursday's double header. Poor fielding by Boston and Kelley's hitting were responsible for the Giants' victory in the opener. Nixon crashed into the left field wall in the first game trying to get Burns' drive which eventually went for a home run. Nixon was carried off the field with several minor sprains which will keep him out of the game for several days. Score:

AMERICAN GOLFER ELIMINATED FROM BRITISH TOURNEY

Wright Puts Up Game Fight
But Is Bested on 19th
Green by Darwin

By Associated Press:
HOYLAKE, May 26.—Allan Graham, Royal Liverpool, and W. S. Hunter of Warner and Kingdown, will compete in the finals tomorrow for the British amateur golf championship at 34 holes. Bernard Darwin of Woking, who eliminated Frederick J. Wright of Boston, the sole remaining American survivor, in the sixth round, went down to defeat at the hands of Hunter by three up and two to play in the semi-finals. Hunter then advancing to the final round, Graham also advanced to the final by beating H. S. B. Tubbs, of Sunningdale, by one hole in the other semi-final match.

Frederick J. Wright of Boston, last of the American entrants for the British amateur golf championship, was eliminated in the sixth round of play here Thursday, losing to Bernard Darwin of Woking by one hole.

Darwin and Wright halved the first two holes of their match. At the third Darwin topped his drive, the ball touching the top of the bunker and falling 50 yards short of Wright's. Wright won in five to six, becoming one up. At the fourth, Darwin's 10-yard put rested a foot from the hole and he squared the match in three to four.

Wright Falls Off.
Wright became one up at the fifth. Darwin appeared highly strung, and from the sixth tee he hooked his ball to a lay from which he was obliged to play out at right angles. He took four to reach the green, and Wright, winning in five to six, became two up.

At the seventh Darwin drove out of bounds and took four against three by Wright, who became three up. Wright, however, got under the ballings at the eighth and lost in four to five, and stood five up at the turn, his lead being due largely to his out-driving his opponent.

Darwin then began to improve, while Wright fell away on his game, especially on the greens. Darwin regaining ground and then forging ahead until he became dormie at the 17th. By superb golf, Wright won the 18th hole, although Darwin missed a three-yard putt for a half, and the game, which was all square at the 18th, went to the 19th. On the extra hole, Wright pulled his tee shot but Darwin's drive was a good one, and he got down in five. Wright's putting was weak, and he took six, thus becoming eliminated from the championship.

MIKE GIBBONS WINS.

SCRANTON, Pa., May 26.—Mike Gibbons, St. Paul, middieweight, easily outpointed Leo Leonard, of Wilkes-Barre, in a ten round bout here Thursday night.
